

Practical Nursing

Program Learning Outcomes

PLO1: Students will participate in the nursing process to provide safe client-centered care as measured by 85% of students will answer correlated final exam questions correctly, 95% of students will provide several satisfactory examples throughout the semester on the Clinical Evaluation Tool as verified by clinical instructor, 85% of the students will exceed national mean on the safety and infection control sections of the ATI Proctored Exam Comprehensive Predictor.
PLO2: Students will participate in providing evidence-based care from an established plan of care by the RN as measured by 85% of students will answer correlated final exam questions correctly, 85% of the students will exceed national mean on the Evidence Based Practice portion of the ATI Comprehensive Predictor.
PLO3: 70% of new students who enroll in NUR 101 will graduate in 4 semesters (100%).
PLO4: 85% of graduates, who want to be employed as a LPN, will obtain a job within one year.
PLO5: 85% of students will pass the NCLEX-PN on the first attempt within one year of graduation.