

Information Technology

Program Learning Outcomes

PLO1:

Analyze the technical needs of end users with an average score of 80% or higher on assignments.

PLO2:

Provide a coding solution for a program to meet end-user requirements with an average score of 80% or higher on assignments.

PLO3:

Develop a website that incorporates static and dynamic content utilizing current industry standard software and techniques, including integration with a relational database.

PLO4:

Identify basic network components with an average score of 80% or higher on assignments.