

Upon successful completion of the Internet Marketing certificate, graduates should be able to:

- Analyze the website related needs of the client
- Deploy a professional online presence through a content management system
- Integrate a professional social media presence for a business
- Develop a website that is optimized for a search engine
- Use analytics to measure online activity